St. Bart's Mission is to restore all people to unity with God and each other in Christ. We are committed to doing this through prayer, worship, proclaiming the Gospel, and promoting justice, peace, and love.

The Catechism, The Book of Common Prayer, p. 855

We live out our mission, with God's help, by continuing in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of the bread, and in the prayers. We do our best to resist evil and whenever we fall into sin, we repent and return to the Lord. We proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ. We seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving our neighbor as ourselves, and we strive for justice and peace among all people, respecting the dignity of every human being.

The Baptismal Covenant, The Book of Common Prayer, p. 304

THE FIRST LESSON

Acts 4:5-12

The rulers, elders, and scribes assembled in Jerusalem, with Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander, and all who were of the high-priestly family. When they had made the prisoners stand in their midst, they inquired, "By what power or by what name did you do this?" Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Rulers of the people and elders, if we are questioned today because of a good deed done to someone who was sick and are asked how this man has been healed, let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Israel, that this man is standing before you in good health by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead. This Jesus is `the stone that was rejected by you, the builders; it has become the cornerstone.'

There is salvation in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given among mortals by which we must be saved."

Reader            The Word of the Lord.

People            Thanks be to God.

PSALM 23

My shep-herd is the Lord; noth-ing in-deed shall I want.

- 1 The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.
- 2 Fresh and green are his pastures where he gives me repose. Near restful waters he leads me to revive my drooping spirit. Refrain
- 3 He guides me along the right path; he is true to his name.
- 4 If I should walk in the valley of darkness, no evil would I fear. You are there with your crook and your staff; with these you give me comfort. Refrain
- 5 You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes. My head you have anointed with oil, my cup is overflowing. Refrain
- 6 Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. Refrain

THE SECOND LESSON1 John 3:16-24*

We know love by this, that he laid down his life for us-- and we ought to lay down our lives for one another. How does God's love abide in anyone who has the world's goods and sees a brother or sister in need and yet refuses help?

Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. And by this we will know that we are from the truth and will reassure our hearts before him whenever our hearts condemn us; for God is greater than our hearts, and he knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have boldness before God; and we receive from him whatever we ask, because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.

And this is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and love one another, just as he has commanded us. All who obey his commandments abide in him, and he abides in them. And by this we know that he abides in us, by the Spirit that he has given us.

Reader            The Word of the Lord.

People            Thanks be to God.

THE HOLY GOSPELPlease stand for the Gospel.John 10:11-18*

Gospeller        The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ...

8 am                Glory be to thee, O Lord.

10:30 am        Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away—and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."

Gospeller        The Gospel of the Lord.

8 am                Praise be to thee, O Christ.

10:30 am        Praise to you, Lord Christ.

AT ST. BART'S, we do not expect little ones to sit still and be quiet during worship services. We invite you to borrow a book or two from the library or one of the children's activity bags, which are hanging on the back pew. You may step into our Garden Room, right off the main hallway, for a break any time. This is provided for your comfort to be used as a courtesy so that everyone is able to hear the Word; it is not meant to exclude families with crying babies from worship. Our Nursery is located at the bottom of the staircase just past the women's restroom and is open and attended during Sunday School and the 10:30 service and coffee hour, 9:30 - 12:00 Sundays. It is meant for children up to age 5, their siblings and nursing mothers. You will be asked to fill out a short registration form when you leave your child with our caregivers. Please stay on the premises while your child is in the nursery. Volunteers are welcome. Please ask for Cara Miller for more details. We hope you and your family will enjoy your time with us!
